

Important Additional Application Instructions

Strict compliance in the application process is necessary. The application form should be filled out completely and accurately. All requested information needs to be provided with the application. The trustees will not be able to take favorable action on incomplete applications. Failure to provide all required information will delay the process. Disbursements of approved grants will be contingent upon receipt of any documentation requested in the application.

Only U.S. Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) Exempt Organizations and equivalent organizations such as schools and government entities are eligible for grants.

Please be thorough and submit by mail in quadruplicate copies.
